POSTPONES CASE AGAINST HOZIER

Accused Man Wants Father and Wife With Him When He Goes to Trial.

GRAYS WILL GO INTO CAMP

Grand and Petit Jurors Summoned to Report for Duty on Monday.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Sycamore St., Petersburg, Va., July 19.

The case of J. H. Hozier, of Hampton, under arrest here for alleged attempted assault yesterday on Mrs. Frances E. Gibson, in Chesterfield county, was called in the Police Court this morning, but an examination was not gone into. At the request of counsel for the accused, who desires to have his father and wife with him, the case was continued over until Saturday morning. All of the witnesses for the Commonwealth, including Mrs. Gibson, were in court ready to testify. Commonwealth's Attorney R. H. Mann was present in the interest of the State, and Charles T. Lassiter and P. H. Brophy, appeared as counsel for the prisoner.

Hozier strenuously denies the charge and declares that the authorities have the wrong man. Mrs. Gibson, on the contrary, positively identifies him as her assailant, and other witnesses testify that they saw him in the vicinity. The alleged attack occurred about noon, on a public road, almost in sight of Mrs. Gibson's home.

Operated on for Appendicitis.
Walter D. McKenney, a prominent business man and popular citizen, was taken to the Petersburg Hospital today and operated on for appendicitis. The operation was successfully performed by Drs. Hains and Osborne, and Mr. McKenney's condition is reported as highly favorable.

To Go Into Camp.
The Petersburg Grays, Company G, Second Virginia Regiment, will go into encampment with that regiment at Culpeper on July 29, and will carry the full strength of the company. The Grays have recently been taking weekly practice marches and field camps, to be in readiness for the State encampment.

Known in Petersburg.
William B. Easton, a negro, wanted for murder in Norfolk, is well known in police circles here. He was very recently discharged from jail here, after serving a term of sixty days for larceny. He is known here by the alias of "Colored Sam," and when arrested had in his pockets a number of pawn tickets issued in other communities. The police are satisfied that he is wanted in other cities for thefts.

Particularly the Ladies.

Not only pleasant and refreshing to the taste, but gently cleansing and sweetening to the system, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is particularly adapted to ladies and children, and beneficial in all cases in which a wholesome, strengthening and effective laxative should be used. It is perfectly safe at all times and dispels colds, headaches and the pains caused by indigestion and constipation so promptly and effectively that it is the one perfect family laxative which gives satisfaction to all and is recommended by millions of families who have used it and who have personal knowledge of its excellence.

Its wonderful popularity, however, has led unscrupulous dealers to offer imitations which act unsatisfactorily. Therefore, when buying, to get its beneficial effects, always note the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.,—plainly printed on the front of every package of the genuine Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

Matrimonial Notes.
In Washington yesterday, Miss Annie G. Wilson, of Chesterfield county, and James H. Collier, of Petersburg, were married by the Rev. Mr. Hunsicutt.

Tonight, at the residence of the bride, on Brown Street, Mrs. Emma L. A. Harding, formerly of Lynchburg, was married to James R. Quarles, a well known citizen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. H. Roiston, of the Second Presbyterian Church.

Jurors Summoned.
The grand and petit jurors for service at the July term of the Hustings Court have been summoned by the City Sergeant, to report for duty on Monday morning next. The court meets to-morrow, but will not take up the Commonwealth's docket until Monday.

Personal and Otherwise.
Miss Elizabeth M. Wilcox, of Flower de Hundred, who has been visiting relatives in this city, left yesterday for Windymere, Ontario, where she will visit Dr. and Mrs. John Dunn at their summer home.

Miss Beatrice Jones is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew D. White, in Ithaca, N. Y.
David Dunlop and Frank K. Clements are at the Virginia Hot Springs, where are also a number of other Petersburgers. They went up to the Springs in Mr. Clements' automobile.

Long Buried Remains Exhumed.
In 1855, during the siege of Petersburg, when the Federal lines were pressing closer and closer around the city, many private yards in Petersburg were made temporary burying grounds. It was the custom to bury the dead in the church yards also. This was rendered necessary because of the danger of burials in Blandford Cemetery, in which the Federal shells fell freely. The cemetery was in view of the Federal forts, and funeral assemblages were fired on. Nearly all of the bodies buried in the city, however, were disinterred and removed to the cemetery soon after the close of the war.

The body of Colonel Page, a gallant Virginia officer, was buried in the yard of Grace Episcopal Church, where a handsome stone was erected over it, and where the mound was kept green by the women of the church. Colonel Page's remains were disinterred several days ago and taken to old Blandford to rest amidst the surroundings of many thousands of Confederate soldiers who fell in the same cause for which he gave his life. The same stone which marked his grave in Grace church yard will mark his grave in Blandford.

LEE IS ACQUITTED IN MAYOR'S COURT

Attorney Tried on Charge of Felonious Assault With Intent to Kill.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Crewe, Va., July 19.—Henry E. Lee, Commonwealth's attorney, was tried before the Mayor's court at Crewe on Monday under a charge brought against him by C. E. Wilson of felonious assault with intent to kill, and was acquitted of the charge. Mr. Lee was represented by H. H. Watson, of Crewe, and the Commonwealth was represented by Hon. Ass. D. Watkins, Commonwealth's attorney of Prince Edward county.

The controversy between Mr. Lee and Mr. Wilson arose in the Council Chamber on the night of July 11, when Mr. Lee protested against the Council trading town bonds for an electric light plant that Mr. Wilson, a member of the Council, it is alleged, either owned or was interested in. Mr. Wilson took exception to Mr. Lee's speech and said his statements were not true. When Mr. Lee asked him what he meant, he said: "I meant to call you a liar." Whereupon, according to the testimony, Mr. Wilson put his hand in his pocket, and Mr. Lee drew a revolver, but the pistol was grabbed by Mr. Wilson, and the scuffle between Mr. Lee and Mr. Wilson ended with Mr. Lee and Mr. Wilson on the floor.

The trial was had on the 11th, and resulted in Mr. Lee's acquittal. Mr. Lee subsequently pleaded guilty to carrying a pistol on that occasion, and was fined $20. Mr. Lee stated that he put the pistol in his pocket with no intention of using it except in self-defense.

STOLE MRS. WHITNEY'S GEMS.
Necklace Valued at $1,500 Found in Negro Porter's Possession.

Boston, July 19.—The recent loss by Mrs. Payne Whitney, of New York, of a diamond necklace valued at $1,500 was disclosed yesterday through the arrest of Israel Davis, a negro porter of the New Haven Railroad, on the charge of the larceny of the gems. Davis was arrested after he had entered a pawnshop, and the necklace was found in his possession.

Mrs. Whitney was Miss Helen Hay, daughter of the late John Hay, Secretary of State.

Williamson—Monroe.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Harrisonburg, Va., July 19.—Rev. Robert L. Williamson, pastor of several churches, and Miss Virginia Pearl Moore, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Moore, were married yesterday at the home of the bride's parents in Harrisonburg. Rev. A. W. Anderson performed the ceremony. The groom is a native of North Carolina, who came to the Valley eleven months ago. After a brief trip to the Natural Bridge, Rev. and Mrs. Williamson will return to Harrisonburg.

Real Campaign Conditions Will Govern Company's "Hike."

PAYROLL WILL TOTAL $4,000

Preparations Being Made for Closing Celebration Friday Night.

Governor Mann Pays Visit to Blues' Camp

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Basic City, Va., July 19.—Late this afternoon, just after dress parade, Governor William Hodges Mann visited the camp, and the guard turned out in honor of the commander-in-chief of the State's forces. The Governor then made a short tour of the camp, and expressed himself as being highly pleased, both with the appearance and deportment of the men and with the conditions of the camp. Lieutenant Knox, United States Army, and Captain Hopwood, United States Marine Corps, were presented to him, and Governor Mann chatted pleasantly for half an hour with all the officers.

He then reviewed the beautiful and imposing ceremony of guard mount at 7:30 o'clock. Governor Mann is on his way to Luray, where he is scheduled to make an address to-morrow.

BY A. R. W. MACRETH.
Camp William Richardson, via Basic City, Va., July 19.—In heavy marching orders, and as if on a real campaign, the Blues' Battalion will start at 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon on a practice march of from ten to fifteen miles. Company commanders will issue individual rations, and there will be no company messing except for coffee, which will be taken in the battalion escort wagon. All quartermasters will report to Lieutenant D. W. Bowles, Jr., and accompany the wagon train.

Lieutenant W. G. Fuller, of Company A, and Lieutenant William Crum, of Company D, were dispatched this morning to map out a route, taking with them maps made by the United States Geological Survey. The men will carry their shelter tents and sleep beneath them on the ground, wrapped only in their blanket rolls.

The return march will be made Friday morning. All who are not detailed for guard duty will go on the hike. Real campaign conditions will govern the march, and all duties will be exacted as in war.

now badly engaged in preparing the pay roll, which will amount to the sum of $4,000, furnished equally by the State and by the United States. The whole cost of the trip, including the pay roll, will amount to $5,000, of which $1,000 is for subsistence and $4,000 for transportation. But the encampment will prove to have been well worth the cost, for the battalion is learning more and more every day, and the men are experiencing camp conditions like those of actual service.

This morning's work included tent drill, in which the men are exercised in pitching their shelter tents in as short time as possible.

Then came the usual details. Sergeant James H. Drake, of Company D, is in charge of the sanitation squad, working under the general supervision of Captain Bright. Armed with pickaxe and shovel and cans of disinfectant, this squad proceeds to work immediately after morning drill and then Sergeant "Jimmie" puts them through the manual, pickaxe and shovel taking the place of the guns.

After the Blues leave Camp William Richardson tonight to bring a fancy price as a site for a sanatorium.

Joint Officers' Schools.
Two joint non-commissioned officers' schools were held to-day—Companies A and B under the direction of Lieutenant R. S. Knox, United States Army, and Companies C and D under the direction of Captain S. S. Hopwood, United States Marine Corps. The non-coms are in the school of instruction an hour every day, besides having to perform their other duties.

The feature of the morning hours of the color guard is a baseball game between Companies A and B, Company A winning by a score of 12 to 3. Tom Royster was chief rooster for Company B, but owing to his being slightly out of the game, he was expected to root, which was done to the effect of him. The game was finished just after mess call, but there was plenty left for the players who, they came in. The line-up of the two teams follows:

Company A—Sweeney, catcher; Lohman, pitcher; Collins, shortstop; Gerson, first base; Burke, Joe, second base; Lewis, third base; McDowell, left field; Epps, centre field; Burke, J. J., right field.

Fire in Private's Tent.
The most notable feature of the day was a fire in the tent of E. S. McIntosh and P. S. Jacobs, of Company B, the latter's cot, blanket and pouch being practically destroyed by the flames. The fire smoldered for some time before being discovered. It was extinguished by water and sand. The tent was not damaged. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to have been caused by a lighted cigarette.

The grand celebration of the encampment, the finale of the recreation periods, will be held Friday night, when the camp will be illuminated by 1,400 Japanese lanterns. Offered to-day from Richmond by Lieutenant James McGraw, Jr., of Company C, in charge of the entertainment committee.

General invitations to Basic City and Waynesboro have been issued, and Richmond is also included in the invitation. Kimono and pajama parties will be features of the evening, and the four company captains will do the famous skirt and blouse refreshments will be served, and it will be a time while the fun lasts before the call for "lights out."

Captain Shafer is officer of the day; Lieutenant Puller officer of the guard. The camp illumination will take place from 7:30 to 10 o'clock Friday night. Lieutenant James McGraw, Jr., of Company C, will be commander-in-chief; Elliott Ready, adjutant; Corporal Charles P. Briggs, major of the day; Hatcher, sergeant-major; John Augustine, major of the kitchen; Lester White, major of pajama parade; Sergeant H. B. Welsiger, chair director, and Joe Kesslich will be bandmaster.

CAUGHT IN WEEDS AND LOSES LIFE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Gloucester, Va., July 19.—Mrs. Prior Davis and Nell Reed, of Hall Western, Gloucester, aunt and brother of William E. Reed, have received news of his tragic in Burn, Yancey county, Oregon. Before leaving Gloucester, William Reed assisted his uncle as clerk of the county court, for a number of years. When he left Gloucester he lived in Texas for a few years, and afterwards in Oregon.

Mr. Reed was drowned in Silver Pine last Sunday afternoon. He drove with a party to a ranch to spend a few hours. Mr. Reed discovered some young geese, and being an expert swimmer, went after them. The rest of the party went in the stream fishing. When Mr. Holland, one of the party, returned to the place shortly, he saw Mr. Reed's clothing, but nothing of the young man. He at once hastened to the ranch for help. They began to search with poles and raft to find the body, but at dark had not been successful. In the morning, snapping hooks were used, and at 8 o'clock the body was discovered entangled in weeds five feet from the opposite side of the shore. The position of the body indicated a hard struggle to extricate himself from the entangling weeds. The remains were taken to Burns and prepared for burial. The interment was in the Masonic cemetery.

MAY NOT ACCEPT CARNEGIE LIBRARY

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Harrisonburg, Va., July 19.—Harrisonburg made a record last night by holding two separate and distinct meetings of the Town Council—all inside of two hours.

The Council met at 8 o'clock in special session to wrestle with the Carnegie library matter. The matter of buying a site caused a hitch and the question was referred to the Finance Committee.

Shortly after adjournment the members were summoned to meet again to consider a petition on some minor matter.

MERCHANTS FAVOR COMMISSION FORM

Action on Several Matters by Virginia Retail Association.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Hampton, Va., July 19.—With the adoption of resolutions favoring the commission form of government and the abolition of the fee system in Virginia, the selection of Alexandria as the next place of meeting, and the annual election of officers, the Virginia Retail Merchants' Association closed its seventh annual convention at Buckroe Beach last night.

The program had been arranged for a two-day session, but the merchants hustled things along, and completed their work late to-day.

The association is opposed to the parcels post bill, the night auction sales, and the use of trading stamps. It also placed itself on record as favoring the appointment of a committee looking to the organization of a merchants' mutual fire insurance company to carry the insurance of the merchants of the State.

The officers elected for the coming year are: President, Samuel Cohen, Richmond; First Vice-President, J. H. Brown, Norfolk; Second Vice-President, M. M. Ramsey, Roanoke; Treasurer, I. H. Kaufman, Richmond; Secretary, W. A. Clarke, Jr., Richmond.

District Vice-Presidents—H. R. Booker, Hampton; J. A. Morris, Portsmouth; T. A. Miller, Richmond; P. S. Barrow, Martinsville; D. S. Ryland, Lynchburg; R. E. Knight, Alexandria; J. E. Lockett, Bristol; I. Weinberg, Lexington.

Directors—L. O. Miller, J. F. B. Jurgens, Raphael Levy, Richmond; W. R. Cunningham, Lynchburg; M. Umstadter, Norfolk; S. Payer, Newport News; L. C. Steele, Norfolk.

The resolution favoring the commission form of government was warmly opposed by L. C. Steele, of Norfolk, and Mr. McIntosh, of Richmond, fought for its adoption.

ROCKEFELLER'S ASSESSMENT.
His Realty in Cleveland Appraised at $5,000,000 by Tax Board.
Cleveland, O., July 19.—John D. Rockefeller's real property in Cleveland and Cuyahoga county has been appraised at $5,000,000, according to the announcement made by the quadrennial board of appraisers to-day.

Mr. Rockefeller has protested that the valuation of his Cleveland Heights property, fixed at $200,000, is too high. Mr. Rockefeller is the largest individual property owner of Cleveland.
